

State Hospital Employment and Annual Salaries During the Pandemic 2019 - 2023

Source: US Census Bureau

Increase in full time employees for large states, especially in California

Top 5 Full-Time Employing States by Year

Top 5 Full-Time Paying States by Year

Source: US Census Bureau

- Decrease in part-time employees in California
- Employment numbers in other large states remained stable

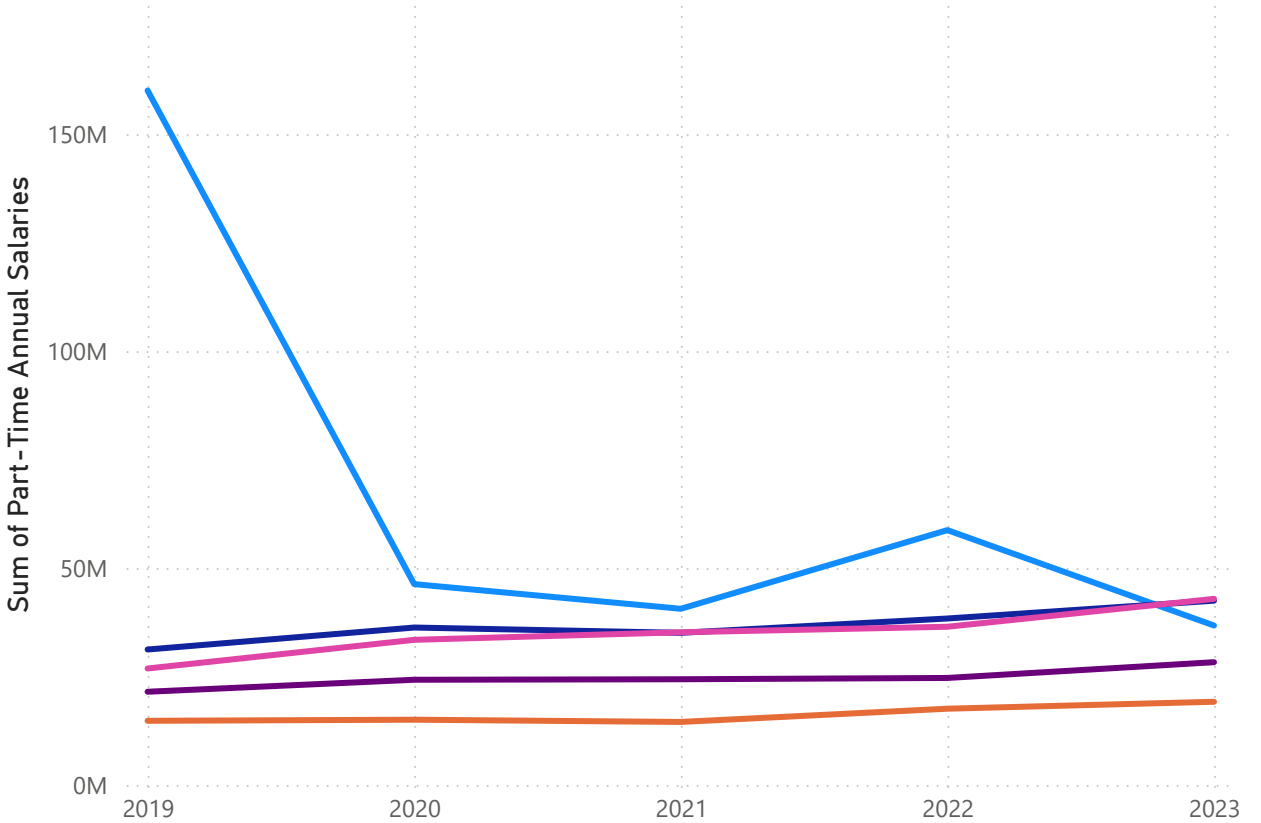

Top 5 Part-Time Employing States by Year

US States AL CA IA MI WA

Top 5 Part-Time Paying States by Year

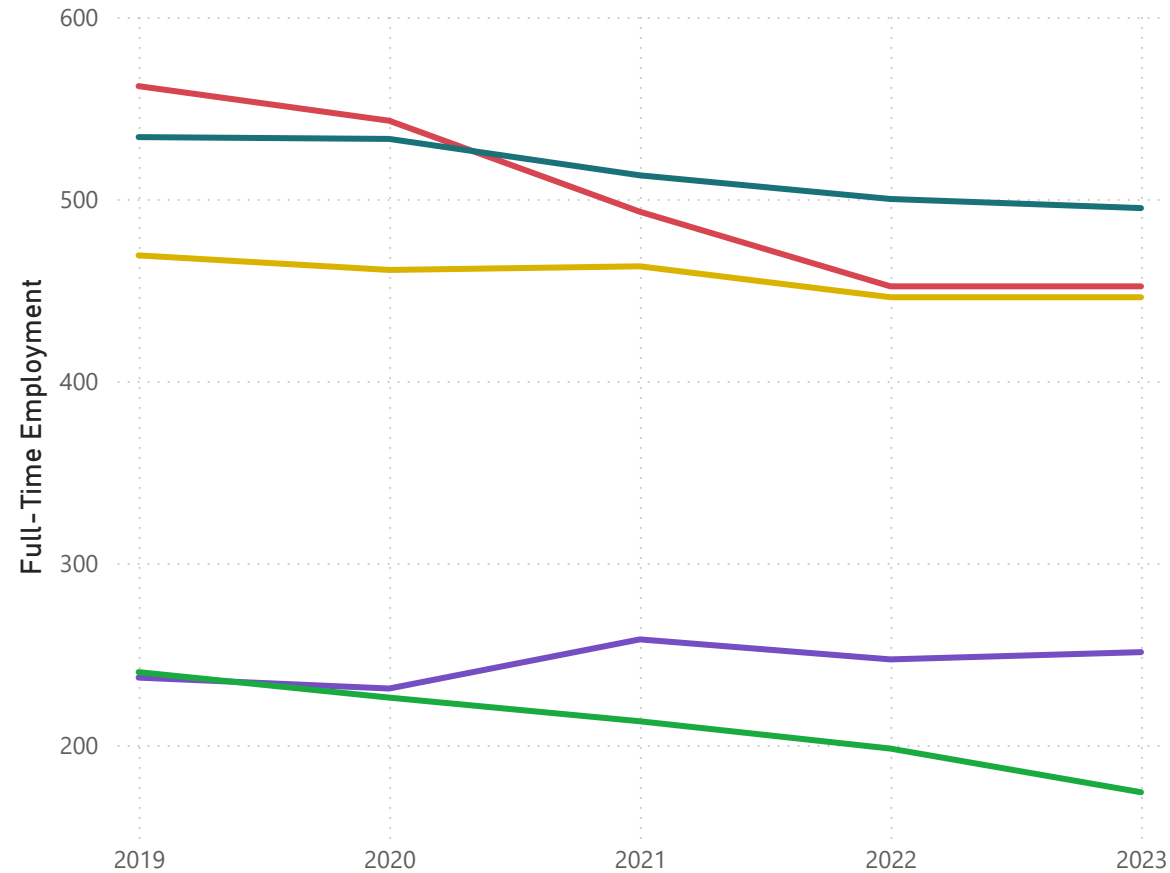

US States CA MI NY OR WA

Slight reduction in full-time employees in smaller states

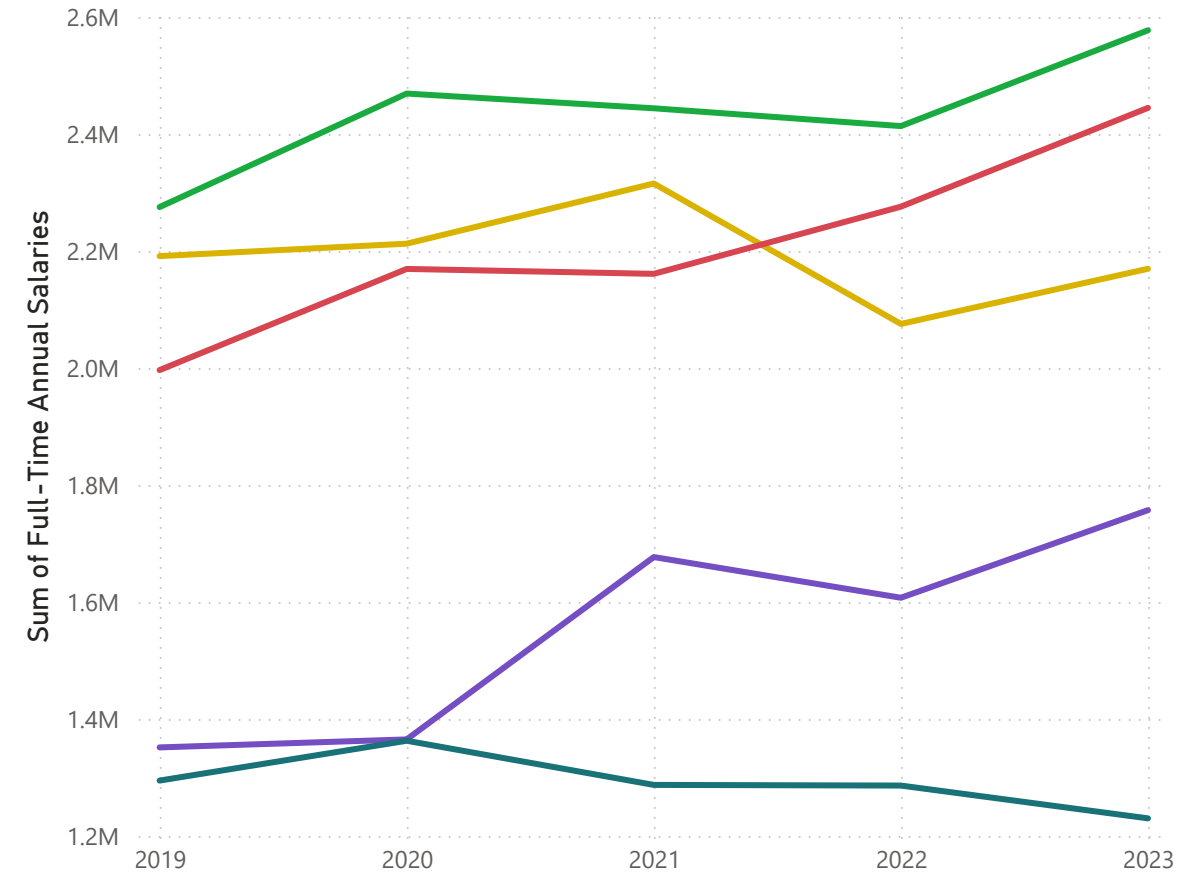

Bottom 5 Full-Time Employing States by Year

US States ● AK ● ME ● MT ● SD ● VT

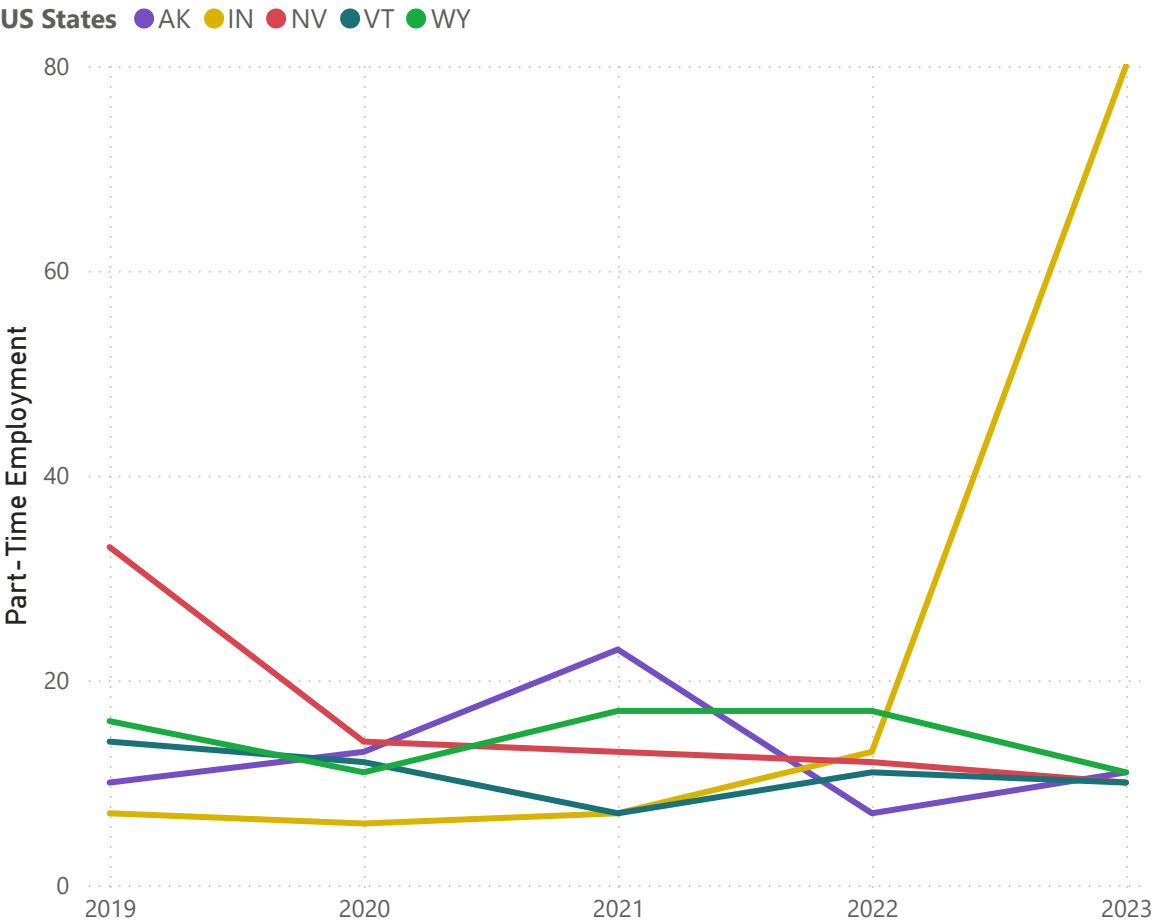

Bottom 5 Full-Time Paying States by Year

US States ● AK ● MT ● SD ● VT ● WY

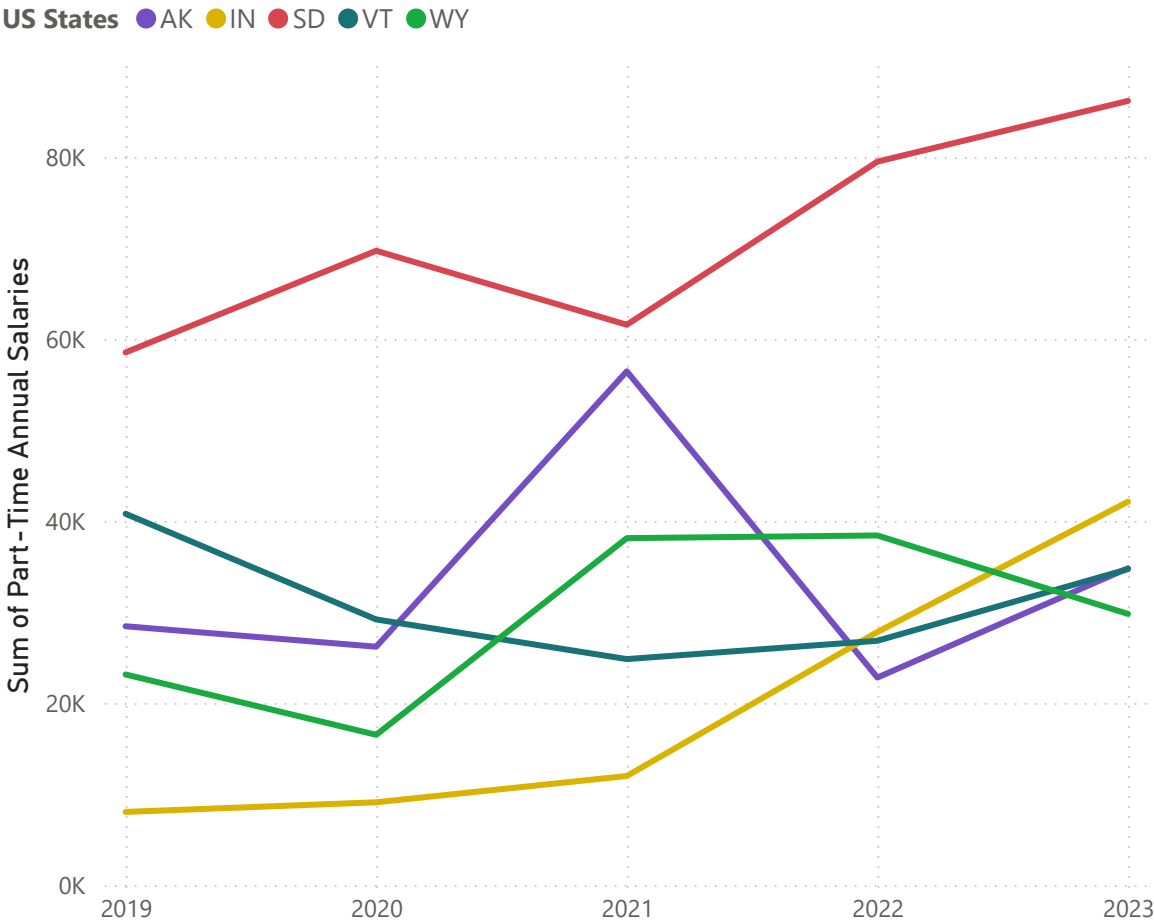

- Part time employment numbers remained steady for small states
- Indiana increased hiring of both part-time and full-time workers between 2022 and 2023

Bottom 5 Part-Time Employing States by Year

Bottom 5 Part-Time Paying States by Year

Source: US Census Bureau

Nationwide Trends in State Hospital Employment and Payroll

- A 9.51% increase in full-time employees accompanied by a 37.03% rise in annual salary expenditures
- A 13.54% decrease in part-time employees, along with an 11.35% reduction in annual salary expenditures

Full-time employment and Part-time employment by Year

Sum of Full-time payroll and Sum of Part-time payroll by Year

Conclusion

- Increased employment for full-time workers, mainly due to California
- Increased pay for full-time employees
- Reduction in part-time employment

Career prospects appear more promising for full-time healthcare workers